Fantastic opportunity to see these great international keynote speakers and more at the Ridley Australian Prawn Farmers Association Symposium 2019!

YAHIRA PIEDRAHITA

Executive Director of the National Chamber of Aquaculture in Ecuador and 29 years in the shrimp industry including as the General Director of Aquaculture in Ecuador.

Yahira will draw on her extensive experience to identify key milestones and challenges that have combined to deliver the Ecuadorian industry to its current position. Come and engage with Yahira at the Symposium to hear how Australian industry can learn from Ecuador's experience of growth and change.

ROBINS MCINTOSH

Executive Vice President of the Charoen Pokphand Foods Public Company Limited (CPF), the largest integrated producer of aquaculture shrimp in the world.

Hear and interact with Robins' about his extensive experience in managing shrimp broodstock development and genetics programs. His work at CPF increased shrimp production at the company from 5,000 tons to over 90,000 tons annually in 2010.

Find out more at the symposium!

JOHN WEIR

A Zotechnical Engineer who has been at the forefront of innovation in operations and biological performance associated with the early stage growth cycle of prawns throughout Latin America and Asia.

Engage with John at the Symposium through his Keynote and workshop on how large scale commercial success has been delivered through an adoption of an 'intensive care nursery stage'. Bigger better prawns – you better believe it.
